Joe Hoil, aged 11, was sent to the reform school by Judge Suell yesterday for being incorrigible.

The bond of Aquilla R. Allen as a consta-ble has been approved by the court in general term.

An exemplified copy of the will of the late George Hartley was filed in the register's office yesterday. The case of Milan Herndon, indicted on the charge of committing a rape on Elizabeth Johnson, the younger, has been set for trial next Tuesday.

The police have been notified to arrest all persons caught with shad or herring in their possession, as the season for catching them expired May 30.

Honry Butler, a colored waiter, was sen-tenced to sixty days in jail by Judge Szell yesterday for stealing a lot of silverware from the Riggs house.

A very fine lithograph portrait of James G. Blaine, next president of the United States, has been received at this office from James J. Chapman.

The grand jury yesterday visited the jall and workhouse, and expressed thomselves as greatly pleased with the excellent condition in which they found the prisons.

The contract for laying concrete pavement on Ninth street, between Rhode Island ave-nue and Boundary, has been awarded to H. L. Cranford, he being the lowest bidder. Andre wHonning, a mechanic, was acquitted in the criminal court yesterday of the charge of breaking into the new St. Patrick's church and stealing the tools of the workmen.

Within the last few days three lots on Olive avenue, Hyattsville, have been sold to Mr. Frank L. Evans, of the agricultural department; a lot on Spencer street to Miss Solma B. Rynex, of Saventh street, Washington, and a lot on Wine avenue to a gentleman in the postofilee department.

The departmental underground telephone system now includes the state, war, and navy departments, Col. Rockwell's office, the white house, treasury department, and capitol, and is found to be perfectly practicable. The Smithsonian is to be included in the circuit, and the number of telephones is to be increased. The system is independent of the general telephone office.

District attorney Worthington having informed the court yesterday that he would have no more cases to call for trial in the craminal court during the present term. Judge Wylie discharged the petit jury from further attendance on the court. The grand jury, however, will be kept busy until next saturday, and the next term of the court commences the ensuing Monday.

Mrs. Howard Comptains.

Mary E. Hardester married Frank How ard, au engineer in the employ of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company, in this city, on June 3, 1873, and yesterday, by her attorney, Mr. Leon Tobriner, petitioned for attorney. Mr. Leon Tobriner, petitioned for divorce and permission to resume her maiden name. The bill is a more skeleton as to facts, and sets out little beyond the requirements of the roles of practice, but shows that considerable remains unsaid. Her complaint is that from the time of her marriage he refused to celabit with her or support her, although receiving a good salary from the railway company, and that he had willfully deserted her, leyond the charge of his sudden withdrawal, immediately after the marriage, at a time when a groom is little likely to abandon his bride, nothing is said to explain his strange conduct.

A Case Without Hope.

John R. Booker, of Macon, Ga., writes: "In 1828 I was attacked by the most ravenous sort of cancerous sores, that ale great holes into my flesh and sproud rapadly over my body. I received the very best medical attention: was dosed with mercurial rheumatism that I could scarcely hobble about my flesh and my fish and most being a physical rein and my life was a burden. For a long time I was bedridden, and my suffering was so intense that I prayed for death as a relief. I exhausted the whole catalogue of patent medicines, in cash case following the directions religiously. Each in turn seemed to aggravate the maisty, and none of them benefited me in any way. Whou life was apparently hopeless I commenced taking 8. S. To this Specific I owe my life. In ton days I commenced improving, and in a short time was perfectly well. My hair has grown out thick, my health and strength have returned, the dicers in my threat and another or entirely cured, my apparent has returned, and for the first time in years I culty my faced. Every sore has disappeared from my body. I weigh as much as I ever did in my life, and an perfectly healthy lo every way. The very germs of the cancerons afficient a destroyed. Not only is the terrible mained that was previnged on my life, and which every one pronounced incumble, entirely cured, but I am also relieved of the bad effects of the mercury and pot as mixtures that I was fed on for years.
